

Carrollton:

FRIDAY, JUNE 10, 1836.

4th of July.—We refer the reader to the proceedings of the meeting held in this place, on Monday evening last, for the purpose of making arrangements to celebrate the 4th of July next.

Congress.—We have received Washington papers up to the 4th inst. The old subjects of the Surplus Revenue, Public Lands, Expunging, &c, are still under consideration. As yet, no day is fixed on for the adjournment.

Progress of Refinement.—The attorneys and counsellors at law, of the city of Columbus, have published a joint notice requesting their clients to make calls on them, between the hours of "9 o'clock A. M. and 4 P. M." If these gentlemen were practising in a certain region that we wot of, they would be willing to see their clients at any time.

John M. Goodenow, Esq.—This gentleman is out, in the last Stark County Democrat, in a long letter intended to prove that he is not an "Old Federalist." We know nothing of Judge Goodenow's former politics, but we think it strange that he should conceive it necessary to publish a long essay, at this day, to establish his political character among his old acquaintances. The Ohio Repository charged the Judge with being an "Old Federalist," and this charge he repels.—What do the Judge's old friends say to it?

Perry Smith has been elected Senator of the United States from the State of Connecticut, for six years from the 4th of March next, (to succeed Mr Tomlinson.)

4th of July Celebration.

Pursuant to notice had through the "Carroll Free Press," a number of citizens of the county met at the Court house in Carrollton, to make suitable preparations for the celebration of the approaching Anniversary of our National Independence. The meeting was organized by appointing Robert McClave, Esq. President, Col. James H. Ross, Vice President, and Thomas R. Harbaugh Secretary.—Whereupon it was Resolved, That a committee of arrangement be appointed, to consist of fifteen persons, to make the necessary preparation for the celebration of the coming 4th of July; and that, Capt. William Hodge, Van Brown, Esq., Maj. E. Clinton, John Elder, Col. Jas. Thompson, George Y. Hampton, John Christy, Thos. R. Harbaugh, Samuel Landes, Richard H. Liggett, Thomas B. Kinsey, James Speer, David Capper, Robert McElderry and Jas. Davis, jr. be said committee.

Resolved, That the citizens of Carroll county be, and are hereby invited, without regard to political parties, to join in the proposed celebration.

Resolved, That the committee of arrangement meet on Friday the 17th day of this month, (at the Court house) at 2 o'clock P. M.

Resolved, That the proceedings of this meeting be published in the Carroll Free Press.

On motion the meeting adjourned.

ROBT. MCCLAVE, Esq. Pres't.
Col. JAS. H. ROSS, Vice Pres't.
THOS. R. HARBAUGH, Sec'y.
Carrollton, June 6th, 1836.

THE SURPLUS REVENUE.

Our readers will have observed that the debate in the Senate on the bill "to regulate the deposits of the public money," resulted, on Tuesday, in the commitment of the bill, together with all the amendments which had been proposed to it, to a select committee of nine members, to consider of the whole matter and report thereon. The committee was appointed by ballot to consist of the following members, namely:

Mr. WRIGHT, of N. York, Chairman.
Mr. CALHOUN, of South Carolina.
Mr. WEBSTER, of Massachusetts.
Mr. KING, of Alabama.
Mr. BICHANAN, of Pennsylvania.
Mr. SHEPLEY, of Maine.
Mr. LEIGH, of Virginia.
Mr. HENDRICKS, of Indiana.
Mr. EWING, of Ohio.

We learn that the deliberations of the committee have resulted in the adoption, substantially, of the plan proposed by Mr. WEBSTER on Tuesday, in his amendment for the disposition of the surplus money of the Government, which amendment was as follows:

"And be it further enacted, That the money which shall be in the Treasury of the United States on the first day of January, 1837, reserving millions, shall be divided among the several States in proportion to their respective amounts of population, as ascertained by the last census, and according to the provision of the second section of the first article of the Constitution; and the Secretary of the Treasury shall pay the same to such persons as the several States may authorize to receive it, in the following proportions, and at the following times, viz. one-half on the first day of July, 1837, and the remaining quarter on the first day of October, 1837; and all States which shall receive their several proportions according to the provisions of this act, shall be taken and understood thereby to pledge the public faith of such States to repay the same, or any part thereof, to the United States, whenever Congress shall require the same to be repaid by any act or acts which shall require such payment, ratably, and in equal proportion, from all the States which had received the same."—Nat. Int.

The bill for the re organization of the Post Office Department has passed the House of Representatives, and is now before the Senate. There appearing to be some misunderstanding as to the salaries of Clerks, &c. authorized by the bill as it was amended and passed in the House we have transcribed the several allowances of that nature from the bill, and now give them to our readers, as follows:

Assistant Postmasters General each	$2,500
Chief Clerk	1,700
Three Principal Clerks, each	1,400
Ten Clerks, each	1,200
Eight Clerks, each	800
Messenger,	700

IMPORTANT DECISION.

Three Days Grace.—Many banks both in this state and elsewhere, have immorially followed the practice, in discounting notes, of charging interest for four days more than the time specified on the face of the instrument. This was done by allowing three days' grace & by counting both the day on which the note was drawn and that on which it fell due. In the case of McNely assignee of the state bank at Trenton, vs. the heirs of Drake, this point was raised by the counsel for the defendant; and the supreme court decided that the practice was an usurious one, and vitiated all the contracts it entered into. In other words, that it is usury to estimate both the day of the date, and of the maturity, in discounting a note or bill.

Another point raised by the counsel in the same case, says the Trenton Emporium, was that the practice of taking discount out of notes drawn at ninety days; as though they were drawn at three months or one fourth of a year, was usurious.—Although no express opinion was given by the court on this point, a sufficient intimation fell from two of the justices to put the community on their guard against following this custom.

The court determined, in the case before that the usury not having been between the parties in Court, the verdict for the plaintiff must be sustained.—Newark Advertiser.

The Wheeling Murder.—On account of the standing and respectability of the friends and relatives of one of the prisoners charged with this dreadful and unfortunate affair, we feel a reluctance in reverting to the circumstance, in any manner whatever. But, as we are often enquired off, as to the result of the trial, we shall merely state, that on Friday the 27th ult., Thomas Winteringer, one of the individuals charged with the murder of the unfortunate Crissman, was put upon his trial, which resulted on Saturday evening after a patient investigation, in his conviction of murder in the first degree. On Monday, Boon Long, charged with the same offence, was brought to the bar and put upon his trial. The indictment being read to him, he immediately pleaded guilty to the charge, notwithstanding, the Court informed him, that he had better plead not guilty, and that any and every thing he had before confessed, should not be given in evidence against him, he however persisted in his plea of guilty; and made a full confession of their guilt, together with all the circumstances connected with the transaction.

On Thursday following, the Counsel for Winteringer, argued a motion for a new trial, which question, we have been informed, the Court have taken under advisement for two weeks. In this way stands the matter for the present.—A. Union.

FLORIDA.

The excitement against Gen. Scott in Florida is becoming extremely violent. In one town they burnt him in effigy.—The Charleston Mercury of the 23d of May says that a gentleman arrived in this city on Sunday last from St. Augustine, informs us that intelligence has been received at that place from Fort King, stating that the Indians were getting to death all their children under two years of age, meaning thereby to rid themselves of incumbrances for a future desperate struggle; also that they were making corn in more than ordinary quantities, which the negroes were made to work very hard under sentinels, placed over them.

This intelligence was received from a friendly squaw who had escaped from the hostile Indians.—Advocate.

GREAT DESPATCH.

The packet ship Independence, Capt. Nye, sailed from New York on the evening of the 18th of April, and reached the coast of England in fourteen days and five hours. The Liverpool Albion says: "The passage from port to port has frequently been made in sixteen days; once, in the year 1822, the packet ship New York made it in fifteen days and three quarters; but the Independence is the only ship that accomplished it within the fifteen days. The ship was crowded with cabin passengers, who are loud in their praises of Captain Nye."

NIAGARA FALLS. The original proprietors, Messrs. Porters, and B. Rathbun, of Buffalo, we learn from the Black Rock Gazette, are about to offer for sale their valuable property at the Falls of Niagara. Having completed the plan and survey of the village, they have given public notice that they will offer at public sale, on the 2d day of August, a large portion of the same. The situation and value of this important site are so well and extensively known, throughout the United States, that any remarks in explanation would be considered the work of supererogation. The sales will doubtless be well attended; and be the means of ushering into being, at a point of such extraordinary natural attractions, a city which might naturally be supposed would be unrivalled by any in the western country.—Herald.

American Literature in England.

It is stated by the Liverpool correspondent of the New York Star that a monthly republication of selected articles from American periodicals is to commence in July. "The publishers are an eminent London house. The editor is to give an opening article, critical and historical, on the state of American literature. The selections will chiefly be made from the Knickerbocker, New York Mirror, American Monthly, Southern Literary Messenger, Boston Pearl, Western Monthly Magazine, the two Quarterlies, Fairfield's Magazine, Southern Literary Journal, &c."

Novelty.—We understand that a steam boat is fitting out in England having two retorts, which are to be placed in the fire under the boilers to generate gas with which the boat is to be lighted up in her cabins, engine rooms, and about deck.—Pipes are also arranged to carry the gas to the mastsheads, where large flames are to be kept during the nights.—*Hud.
